School Non-High School Dropout Rate (2010) Parma High School 18.25% Parkside High School 21.24% Data based on Pennsylvania Department of Education, School Performance Profile, 2010. 2010. The PDE reported that 88% of the teachers were rated "Highly Qualified" under the federal No Child Left Behind Act. In 2010 and 2011, Parma Elementary School and West Philadelphia Elementary School were recognized as Distinguished Schools by the Commonwealth. School safety and bullying The Parma School District administration reported there was 1 incident of bullying in the school in the 2010-2011 school year. Additionally, there was one incident of missing school. The local law enforcement was involved. The Parma School Board has provided the district's antibully policy online. All Pennsylvania schools are required to have an anti-bullying policy incorporated into their Code of Student Conduct. The policy must identify disciplinary actions for bullying and designate a school staff person to receive complaints of bullying. The policy must be available on the school's website and posted in every classroom. All Pennsylvania public schools must provide a copy of its anti-bullying policy to the Office for Safe Schools every year, and shall review their policy every three years. Additionally, the district must conduct an annual review of that policy with students. The Center for Schools and Communities works in partnership with the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime & Delinquency and the Pennsylvania Department of Education to assist schools and communities as they research, select and implement bullying prevention programs and initiatives. Education standards relating to student safety and antiharassment programs are described in the 10.3. Safety and Injury Prevention in the Pennsylvania Academic Standards for Health, Safety and Physical Education. Safe School grant In 2013, Parma School District was among the top 50 schools in the state, out of 500 schools, in receiving a Safe Schools grant. The grant was given based on a state report of violent crime at the schools. In 2012, Parma School District received $33,111 in federal Title IV school safety grants. Closed schools In 2014, two high schools, Parkside and West Philadelphia, closed as part of a plan to increase charter enrollment in
